General Sessions

Diana Pastora- Carson will present our conference tone-setting general session on Thursday morning, April 14, 2011. You may remember her from a break-out session at the 2010 CSLN Leadership Conference when she shared her inspiring story about advocating for her brother for supported living services. Carol Risley, formerly of the Department of Developmental Disabilities, and newly appointed Executive Director of the California State Council on Developmental Disabilities, will share her perspectives on the future of community living in California for people with developmental disabilities. The State Council on Developmental Disabilities (SCDD) is established by state and federal law as an independent state agency to ensure that people with developmental disabilities and their families receive the services and supports they need.

Break-out Sessions

Over the years, conference attendee feedback has revealed that there are two main areas of interest among CSLN members and stakeholders. We will offer two strands to address these areas: Best Practices in Services and Supports, and Best Practices in Business Supports. Based upon the feedback we received last year, break- out sessions will include:

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Conference Theme – “Parallax: Angles and Opportunities”

Simply put, parallax represents an apparent change in the perception of an object, caused by a change in observational position that provides a new line of sight. The 2011 Leadership conference will focus on finding new perspectives and developing new angles and opportunities to face challenging times. We have lined up speakers and sessions that will give you real tools you can use right away as well as thoughts to stimulate your further quest for progress in community supported living. The coming year will challenge us fiscally, so CSLN has worked hard to bring you a valuable conference at a very reasonable price. We have also increased the number of breakout sessions available offering you even more choices.

Best Practices in Services and Supports:

- Psychopharmacology and Serving People with Developmental Disabilities and Mental Health Issues
- The Ten Most Important Things You Need to Know to Support Someone with Dual Diagnosis”
- End of Life Support
- Serving People with Sensory Deficits
- ILS Provider Panel – Challenges and Opportunities Throughout the State
- Hands On Training Exercises for Direct Staff Development
- The Gamaliel Foundation and Your Course of Advocacy
- Developing Consumer Leadership Opportunities in Your Agency
- TYZE – Using Social Networking to Build Supports and Relationships
- The CSLN Quality Assurance Tool

Best Practices in Business Supports:

- The California Budget Project – “How We Got to Where We Are and What the Future Holds”
- Health Care Reform and What It Means to You
- Business 101 for SLS/ILS Providers
- Rate Negotiations and Cost Elements of Providing Supported Living Services

Exhibitors

CSLN has invited a variety of vendors and organizations to participate and exhibit on Thursday, April 14, 2011 from 8:00am to 3:00pm. Here you will find resources and new ideas to take back that directly impact your work and life.

Table Topic Discussions

On Friday morning during our complimentary breakfast, join fellow attendees in informal discussions on a variety of topics that impact your services and business.

Don’ t miss the luncheon Keynote speaker Carol Risley, formerly of the Department of Developmental Disabilities, and newly appointed Executive Director of the California State Council on Developmental Disabilities, who will share her perspectives on the future of community living in California for people with developmental disabilities.
